RAGGING AND EVE-TEASING

Ragging, eve-teasing and aiding and abetting the same in any form, mental or physical, inside or outside the institute is an offence prohibited by law. Mental and/or Physical harassment of any student by whatsoever name called which may have the effect of the dehumanization and affect the self esteem of a student is an offence. Any student found indulging in any such activity shall forthwith be expelled from the institute, without exception.

RAGGING IS A SOCIAL CRIME

As per the directive of the MHRD Govt. of India/UGC regulation 2009 for controlling ragging in educational institutions, MVGI Institutions are very well prepared to prevent any possible ragging incident in any Institute. Ragging in all forms is strictly prohibited on or outside the MVGI Campus. The MVGI institutes have zero tolerance for ragging. The following may constitute a part and parcel of ragging:

- Addressing a fellow student as "SIR"
- Forcing juniors to sing a song, run in the ground or abuse other colleague etc.
- Forcing the junior colleague to serve snacks or meals.
- To tease the students and force him/her to display physical feats with or without the presence of other students.
- Forcefully asking the junior colleague to obey the command of the seniors.
- To pose as a Joker amongst the gathering of the colleagues.
- Hindering the junior students in attending/studying in the class or stopping him/her from taking meals.
- To harass or cut jokes under-duress.
- Any objectionable remark or action which causes physical or psychological torture or infringement of the liberty of any student can be termed as an act of ragging.

ADMINISTRATIVE ACTIONS IN THE EVENT OF RAGGING

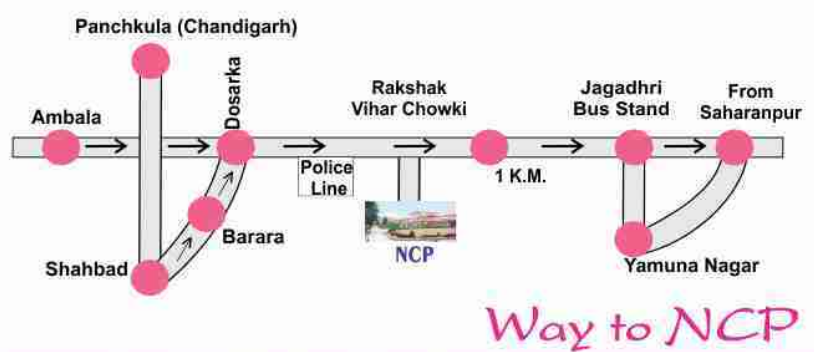

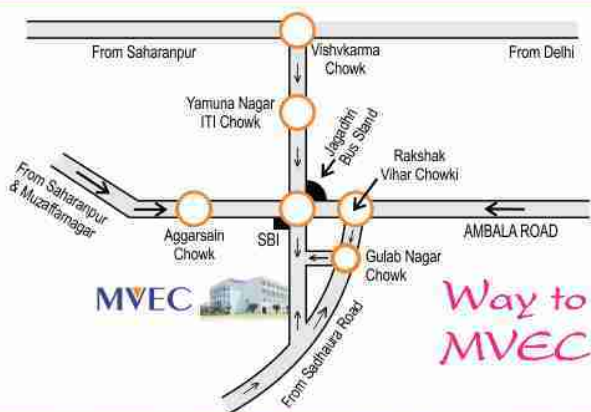

Depending on the nature or gravity of the guilt established by the Anti Ragging Squad, those found guilty may be awarded one or more of the following punishments, namely:

- Against every incident of ragging a First Information Report (FIR) will be filed with the local police authorities
- Suspension or expulsion from the college
- Suspension or expulsion from hostel or mess.
- Withholding scholarships or other benefits

Provided that where the persons committing or abetting the act of Ragging are not identified, the Institution shall resort to collective punishment. There has been no incident of Ragging at MVGI till date.

Moreover, Institutions have identified various locations on the campus where anti ragging boards have been installed. These boards mainly depict: (i) Banning of Ragging in the Institute (ii) Quantum and nature of punishments to defaulters (iii) Helpline numbers of institute officials.

MVGI Institutions have also installed Ragging Complaint Boxes in all first Year's Hostel messes. These boxes are opened and checked daily by the members of The Anti Ragging Squad.
